

WILL MAKE
AFFIDAVITNew Lease of Life for an Iowa Postmaster.

Postmaster R. H. Randall of Dunlap, Ia., says: "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and resulting evils for years. Being unable to obtain permanent relief, I resolved to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Before I had taken one bottle I knew I had found what I had long looked for. After a few bottles I was cured of a soreness in my left side that I had not been free from for over ten years. I am better today than for years. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure has given me a new lease of life.

"If any suffering person will use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I believe, if it is a diseased stomach from which they suffer, that they will receive permanent relief. Anyone wishing can have a sworn statement as to the genuineness and truthfulness of this statement."

This testimonial is the voluntary statement of a man who has suffered, found relief and wants others to receive the same benefits. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure any case of stomach trouble. It rests the stomach by digesting what you eat. The rest alone would restore health. But Kodol Dyspepsia Cure also contains tonics which build up the organ and hasten the good results. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. Helps children, too.

HORRORS OF FIRE

Chicago Inebriate Asylum
Burns, the Flames Claiming Thirteen Victims.

ESCAPE WAS CUT OFF

Barred Windows Left No Way of Escape After Stairways Were Rendered Useless By Fire.

His Hands Manacled to His Side
"Blind Billie" Kent, Alderman,
Is Burned to Death.

Chicago, June 10.—Twelve men and one woman were killed and about thirty persons were injured in a fire which yesterday afternoon destroyed the sanitarium conducted by the St. Luke's society at the corner of Wabash avenue and 21st street. The society occupied the building, which was long known as the Hotel Woodruff and for a brief period as the Hotel Lancaster. By far the greater portion of the patients received in the institution were those seeking cure from the drink habit and those who were addicted to the use of drugs. When the fire broke out there were on the fifth floor a number of patients suffering from delirium tremens and some who were deranged by drugs. Several of these were strapped to their beds and it was found impossible to save them, so rapidly did the fire spread through the building. The list is as follows: S. J. Newell, Carl A. Carlson, Michael Luby, Joseph Harrington, Samuel Dalkell, Dr. J. T. Stanton, J. B. Bishop, St. Louis, Mo.; George A. Ribbeck, Hillsdale, Mich.; G. E. Scott, Laverne, Ill.; William Kent, alderman of the Fourth ward, Chicago; John B. Knapman, Mrs. M. Baumann, B. H. Boyd, 78 years of age, and member of the medical staff of the institution.

The fire originated in the basement of the building, and spread rapidly to the upper stories through the elevator shaft. As the cry of fire rang through the building the patients sprang from their beds, and before they could be prevented several had jumped from the windows to the pavement. The fire department was on the scene within a few minutes, and as the windows were filled with people shrieking for help, the firemen devoted their first efforts to saving lives, and allowed the fire to burn. While this was the means of saving a large number of people, who were carried down the ladders by the firemen, it gave the fire such a headway that there was almost no chance for those on the upper floors of the building to make their escape, and such of them as were not suffocated were killed or badly injured by leaping from the windows.

Alderman Kent was in a room on the fifth floor with his attendant, A. W. Wattles. The alderman, who has been totally blind for many years, was in a straight jacket, and his hands were manacled to a belt that passed around his waist. When the alarm of fire was sounded Wattles ran to investigate. He found the elevator shaft a mass of flames and ran back to help the alderman, who, blind and unable to do anything with his hands, was almost mad with fear, and was shouting like an insane person. He had groped his way to the door and by the time his attendant had reached him had fallen to the floor overcome with smoke. Wattles seized him and tried to drag him down the hall to a place of safety, but Kent had become so crazed that it was almost impossible to do anything with him. Wattles was finally compelled to run for his life, as the flames were already scorching his clothing. He ran to a window on the south side of the building, across which were iron bars. Wattles managed to tear two of these from their fastenings, and with two other men who had followed him, climbed out on the sill. They were seen by the firemen, who called to them to remain where they were and they would save them. A ladder was run up as high as possible and the two men with Wattles were taken down. He became crazed with excitement, and not waiting for the return of the firemen, sprang for a net which some men were holding on the sidewalk beneath. He fell partly in it and partly on the sidewalk, and sustained injuries which probably will cause his death in a short time.

Kent was left lying on the floor of his room, and evidently died of suffocation. His body was badly burned after death. Three hours after the outbreak of the fire, it was found on the floor of his room, one leg burned to a crisp, and the head burned off. He was identified by means of his clothing. A scene that wrought to the pitch of madness the great crowd that had gathered around the building was enacted at a fourth story window on the north side. Across this window was a heavy wire screen, and on the outside of the screen were iron bars running parallel to the sill. The space between those bars was too small to allow the passage of even a small boy, and behind them were gathered a crowd of men whose numbers were afterward found to be between twenty-five and thirty. Escape in other directions was impossible, for the fire filled all the halls and was steadily eating its way toward the window at which the men were standing. The one chance for life for that crowd of men lay through that screened and barred window, and the frantic efforts of the imprisoned men until they had broken the bars and effected an escape by means of a neighboring fire escape presented a picture of despair rarely witnessed.

Saratoga Hotel-caust.
Saratoga, N. Y., June 10.—Fire yesterday destroyed the Arcade and the Citizens National bank block and the Shickelof building and caused the loss of five lives.

TROUBLE IN CAMP

All Is Not Smooth Sailing With Marion County Democrats.

Indianapolis, June 10.—If any of the rumors floating around today are true there is trouble ahead for the Marion county Democracy. It was hinted that A. A. McKain, the nominee for auditor, had decided not to run and that one or two other men nominated without their knowledge were about to pull off the ticket. The Democratic leaders regarded the nomination of McKain as a ten-strike, as he is popular and wealthy. Before the county convention a few days ago there were not enough favored candidates to fill out the ticket. McKain's name was sprung during the convention and of course he won. There has been much uneasiness lest he should not accept the nomination, but the leaders have put on a bold front and declared that things are all right. If McKain should quit it would have a demoralizing effect, as it would shake the confidence of the party workers. The leaders realize this fully, and they have been doing everything to keep the ticket intact. To all appearances there is not much hope of the Democrats winning this time in Marion county, although they are making the usual show of fight. The Republicans are counting on carrying their entire ticket by majorities ranging from 2,000 to 2,500.

H. C. Coles of Washington, an inspector of free rural mail delivery routes, is in Indianapolis. He has made this feature of the postal department a special study. He says that placing it under the civil service rules has resulted in a decided improvement, as a better class of men are taking up the work. There are now over 6,000 routes in operation, and it is probable there will be more than 7,000 within the next few weeks. Coles has some decided views. He says that rural delivery will have a tendency to keep boys on the farms, as they can now get daily papers and magazines and enjoy the same privileges in this respect as are enjoyed in the towns and cities. Merchants in smaller places object to the system because they think it keeps farmers at home too much, but with the exception of saloon men Coles does not believe that anyone else is hurt. Rural routes are spreading to every part of Indiana, and there is perhaps no state in the Union that is enjoying better or more complete service.

Secretary Wilson of the United Mine Workers said today it is still probable that the miners will be together in national convention in Indianapolis to determine whether or not the bituminous fields shall be involved with the anthracite strike. It is believed, however, that President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson will be sure of their ground before a call is issued. The officials, it is understood, do not want a convention where hot-headed members might succeed in involving the country in a stupendous strike that would endanger the organization itself. If a convention is called it is probable they will know before hand that there are conservative men who will vote against a general strike and defeat the proposition. Wilson says the great time has fallen to the floor overcome with smoke. Wattles seized him and tried to drag him down the hall to a place of safety, but Kent had become so crazed that it was almost impossible to do anything with him. Wattles was finally compelled to run for his life, as the flames were already scorching his clothing. He ran to a window on the south side of the building, across which were iron bars. Wattles managed to tear two of these from their fastenings, and with two other men who had followed him, climbed out on the sill. They were seen by the firemen, who called to them to remain where they were and they would save them. A ladder was run up as high as possible and the two men with Wattles were taken down. He became crazed with excitement, and not waiting for the return of the firemen, sprang for a net which some men were holding on the sidewalk beneath. He fell partly in it and partly on the sidewalk, and sustained injuries which probably will cause his death in a short time.

It will be surprising if there is any change in the federal bench for the district of Indiana before fall, or may be not until after the first of next year. A prominent politician who keeps in close touch with the situation said today that he is fully convinced that Judge John H. Baker does not care to resign, and that the president and the two senators from Indiana are not anxious that he shall quit. There never was a time in Judge Baker's long career when he showed more vigor on the bench than now, and many prominent attorneys who do not think politics and the judiciary should be mixed, say that to insist on Judge Baker quitting just because he has reached the age limit might be another case of jumping from the frying pan into the fire. The fight is being continued nevertheless for his place.

NO NEW PHASE

West Virginia Miners' Strike Moving Along Quietly.

Charleston, W. Va., June 10.—The strike situation is about the same here. All the miners in Kanawha, Montgomery and Hazledy fields are out. The new river field is completely tied up. Reports from Winfrede, Cabin Creek and Carbon are that all the men are working. The Kanawha and Hocking Syndicate have their regular forces at work at Big Mountain, Monarch and Kelly's Creek. These include the biggest forces of men in this section. The Chesapeake Mining company had a few men at work and got out coal enough for the locomotives and at the Marmet, just above here, all were at work. There were no reports from Elk River. The miners from there were out for a circus yesterday, and the operators say there is no talk of strike there. Various reports of the organizers of the United Mine Workers are heard, but cannot be confirmed.

Preparing For Trouble.
Huntington, W. Va., June 10.—Quietude reigns in all coal fields in the southern portion of the state. No violence has been reported from any quarter. The operators, however, fear trouble before the strike is over, and Winchester are being received daily by express. Probably 25,000 miners are idle in West Virginia today.

Want Higher Wages.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—About 600 men employed in the melting rooms of the Singer-Blinck plant and the La Belle mills of the Crucible Steel company in Pittsburg and also the Alquippa plant of the same company in Alquippa, Pa., quit work yesterday as a protest against the present wage rate. The action of the melters in the three mills mentioned is being followed by the same department in the Black Diamond Steel company in Lawrenceville, which is the largest concern of its kind in the crucible concern.

Carried On the Pilot.

Newport, Ind., June 10.—Thomas J. Thomas, two miles east of here, while crossing the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, was struck by a wild engine and died from the injuries in a short time. He was driving a team hitched to a wagon. He was carried on the pilot for some distance. He was an old soldier, 67 years old. He could not see the train on account of a dense fog.

No Quarantine.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—It is practically certain that the quarantine between Kentucky and Indiana will be declared off. Monday was the day upon which it was to be resumed, but no effort was made in that direction, and Health Officer Allen states that all parties favor the abandonment of the quarantine.

tel, where Mr. Wright is stopping. President Mitchell went to the commissioner's room, where he remained in conference with Mr. Wright for two hours. When he left Mr. Mitchell said:

"I have but little to say further than that I have talked with Commissioner Wright and have explained to him the situation from the miners' standpoint and have told him of the causes which led up to the strike."

"Was there any suggestion of a settlement made during the interview?" President Mitchell was asked.

"No. I understand that Commissioner Wright was simply seeking information for an official report under the law."

"Did Commissioner Wright explain to you President Roosevelt's views concerning the trouble?"

"He did not."

President Mitchell left for Wilkes-Barre this morning.

BITTER RACE FEELING

Colored Industrial School in Illinois
Forced to Close.

Carbondale, Ill., June 10.—The board of trustees of the Eldorado (Ill.) Normal and Industrial Institute, a colored school modeled after the Tuskegee (Ala.) normal school of which Booker T. Washington is president, has under consideration the removal of the institute, owing to a bitter warfare now going on. The pupils and teachers have fled from the place, fearing mob violence. Today the first commencement exercises were to have been held, but the buildings have been deserted, the windows smashed in and other damage to the buildings and growing crops inflicted. President Alstone and family are supposed to be in Cairo. The school was recently organized by popular subscription and started out under favorable auspices. Intense feeling exists over the affair.

DESERVED PROMOTION

Col. Jesse M. Lee Appointed to Be a
Brigadier General.

Washington, June 10.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the nomination of Colonel Jesse M. Lee to be brigadier general. Colonel Lee lived at Greencastle, Ind., and has belonged to the regular army for many years. He volunteered in the civil war in the Indiana infantry and was a captain in the 36th colored infantry in 1865. He was a colonel of one of the immune regiments in the Spanish war, and he was in the Philippines when he joined the Chinese relief expedition, participating in the battle of Tien Tsin and succeeding to the command of the Ninth Infantry when Colonel Liscum was killed. He has been brevetted for gallantry in that expedition. He has four years more of active service.

Started His Physicians.

Berlin, June 10.—King Albert of Saxony, who has been ill for some time, was unconscious for a part of Sunday night. His majesty was surrounded by his family, who momentarily expected the end, and he had received the last sacraments. Yesterday, however, his majesty sat up and had breakfast, smoked a light cigar and insisted upon disposing of some state business. This exhibition of vitality on the part of the king has quite startled his physicians, who, however, entertain the gravest fears for the next relapse.

KENTLAND LOST COURT HOUSE.

Goodland, Ind., June 10.—The result of the election to determine whether or not the Newton county courthouse shall be moved from Kentland gives cause for rejoicing here, and this end of the county is jolifying. On the face of the returns Goodland has won by nine votes, nine more than the required 65 per cent of the total number of votes cast. It is possible, but hardly probable, that the canvassing board may make a change Thursday, and so far as the result of the election is concerned, Goodland is the county seat.

Two Indianapolis Suicides.

Indianapolis, June 10.—Benjamin Rettich committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart with a Flobert rifle. Domestic trouble is thought to be the cause of his suicide. The finding of the dead body of Merchant Policeman Rosengarten in an alley with a bullet hole in his head, a revolver grasped in his hand and powder marks about the wound creates a theory of suicide in the minds of the police, though no cause is known for such an act on Rosengarten's part.

A Boy's Suicide.

Martinsville, Ind., June 10.—Horace Hadley, son of Mrs. Lou Hadley of Monrovia, committed suicide yesterday by taking carbolic acid. He was employed on the farm of Joshua Armstrong and was found by two young men on the road near Monrovia. He was taken to the home of Charles Johnson, where he died in a short while. He was 19 years old.

Farmers Resist Combines.

Newcastle, Ind., June 10.—Several of the prominent farmers of the county say that the combine of thrashing machine owners will be ignored, and farmers will form neighborhood parties, which will secure a machine to do the work of all.

Burglars' Rich Hunt.

South Bend, Ind., June 10.—Burglars broke into the home of Andrew Kunstman, a business man, and secured $1,300, a quantity of jewelry and other valuables, to a total value of $6,000. The burglars left no clue.

The Fodra Trial.

Noblesville, Ind., June 10.—The trial of William Fodra, for the alleged shooting from ambush of John E. Seay last winter is now on in the circuit court, the case attracting much attention.

Young Wife Shot Herself.

South Bend, Ind., June 10.—Pearl Shively, 18 years old, who shot herself through the left lung because her husband threatened to leave her, is thought to be fatally injured.

Killed By Lightning.

Pittsburg, Ind., June 10.—Frank Miller took refuge in his barn from a storm. Lightning struck the barn and he was killed.

Boy Drowned.

New Albany, Ind., June 10.—Hubert Strack, young son of Hubert Strack, fell into the Ohio river while fishing and was drowned.

Washington School Teacher of a Lad's Drowning.

A VIVID IMPRESSION

The Night Before George Williams
Drowned Miss Small Saw Scene
In a Dream.

After the Fateful Incident It Developed That Her Dream Was Circumstantially True.

Washington, Ind., June 10.—Miss Omie Small, a teacher in the city schools, had a premonition of the tragic death of George Williams, the student who was drowned. She dreamed on the night previous to the drowning that she was standing by a pond where a number of boys were bathing. Suddenly, while she stood watching the scene, Williams began to struggle and strike the water about him. His companions hastened to his aid, but to no avail, and he sank to rise no more. The dream made a vivid impression on her and she tried to forget it, but it was impossible, and when the tragedy occurred she related her dream minutely as to the manner of Williams' death. Miss Small had known the young man for several years and was a close personal friend. The case attracted much attention, as Miss Small's brother was one of the lads who tried to save the drowning student.

A CLOSE CALL

Section Men Make Perilous Leap for Their Lives.

Washington, Ind., June 10.—James Seargent, foreman, and four section men on a handcar had a narrow escape from death yesterday on the Evansville & Indianapolis railroad. They were going at full speed and didn't see an approaching freight train until they rounded a curve a few yards from the train. The engine struck the car just as the men jumped. The car was demolished, but the men escaped serious injury.

Kendall Loses Court House.

Goodland, Ind., June 10.—The result of the election to determine whether or not the Newton county courthouse shall be moved from Kentland gives cause for rejoicing here, and this end of the county is jolifying. On the face of the returns Goodland has won by nine votes, nine more than the required 65 per cent of the total number of votes cast. Struck by an Engine at Anderson.

Frank Shank, son of George Shank of the Ebenezer neighborhood northeast of Seymour, was instantly killed at Anderson, Monday morning while returning from work. Shank was assistant fireman at the mills of the American Steel and Wire Company and was returning after the night shift. He was walking in the yards of the big four and being sleepy misjudged the distance from the track when he stepped aside for a passing freight engine. He was hit on the temple and died in a few minutes. Shank went to Anderson a few months ago and was quite popular with his fellow-workmen. The remains were brought here this morning and taken to his parent's home. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Modern Woodmen; also of the Rockford M. E. church. He was a christian young man and was held in high esteem. Funeral Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the family residence conducted by Rev. L. C. Overman. Burial at Riverview cemetery.

Veteran Fireman Resigns.

After having served the city continuously for over thirty-five years as a fireman, Joseph Burkart tendered his resignation at the regular meeting of the department last night. At the age of twenty "Uncle" Joe assisted in organizing the first fire department in Seymour. This was in the month of January, 1867, and the company was then known as the "bucket brigade." At an early date the double deck hand engine, known as the Lafayette, was installed which was later discarded by the J. J. Frey hand engine. Then came the steam engine and in 1890 the water works system. During all these years he has remained with the company, being at the time of his resignation the oldest fireman, by some twenty-five years in point of service. He has held every office in the department and for the past twelve years has served as treasurer of the organization.

POINTERS

It would take a double quartette to sound a key-note representing all the shades of opinion prevailing among Indiana Democrats this year.

The determination of Democratic leadership to turn its back upon the past is to be commended, but it should not be forgotten that one cannot wipe out a past by turning his back upon it.

There are worse epidemics than smallpox, Governor Beckham. Goebelism is one of them, and it will take something more than a quarantine against a sister state to stamp it out.

"Why should not the precedent of Cuba be followed in the Philippines?" inquires the Indianapolis Sentinel. Well, for one thing because the Cubans were not shooting at the American flag when it was taken away, and that is reason enough.

The Indiana Gold Democrats of 1896 and 1900 are being invited to return to their old-time political associations on condition that they humbly sit down in the rear of the house. This is a good deal like skimmed milk inviting cream to come back and sink to the bottom of the pan.

"Savages" is the name which Congressman Vandiver of Missouri confers upon the boys who are fighting the battles of their country in the Philippines. If the dictionary holds out the Democratic minority in the house will ultimately get on record its real opinion of the American soldier.

Senator Hoar says we are sacrificing "the flower of American youth" in the Philippines. But would "the flower of American youth" be engaging in the crimes against humanity of which Senator Hoar and his associates complain? The senior senator from Massachusetts should call his opinions into caucus and decide upon a consistent theory of the case.

Henry Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal, in his message to the Indiana Democracy, which came through the lines before the quarantine was established, gives us the familiar assurance that only the Democratic party stands between the country and "the yawning abyss." This being the case, the country will probably conclude to move in some other direction.

As Senator Fairbanks said in a congressional debate the other day: "No matter what the future of Cuba may be, our record is above and beyond reproach. The congress meant what it said, and we have kept the faith. We went to Cuba to free her people from Spanish misrule, not to seize the islands. We declared war in the name of humanity and with no purpose of territorial aggrandizement nor with any ulterior designs. Our exalted purpose was frankly proclaimed, and to it we have steadfastly adhered." The political leadership that has dealt justly with Cuba is not engaged in a conspiracy against human rights in the Philippines.

It is hinted that it may be a part of the Democratic program in Indiana to discourage agitation over the state ticket, and ignore state issues so far as this may be done, with a view to success in a "gun-shoe" campaign for members of the legislature and of congress. However this may be, this is no time for apathy in the ranks of Indiana Republicanism. The state has taken a position in the forefront of Republican commonwealths. It would be easier to take a backward step than to regain lost ground. The most spirited state convention in recent years has given momentum to the Republican canvass. Interest and progress in organization should not be permitted to slacken. It is of the utmost importance that the next Indiana legislature should be Republican—not only because a United States senator is to be elected, but because the reduction of the state debt and the economical management of state institutions and bureaus should be continued. Conditions in national and state affairs worth fighting to get are worth fighting to keep. And despite the apparent somnolency of the Indiana Democracy, it is to be remembered that General Apathy does not win victories, even over an inactive opposition. Indiana Republicans must not and will not lose this year's opportunity to round out a full decade of victory and make their state permanently Republican.

A Debt-Paying Party.

It is waste of time to prove that the Democratic party in Indiana has been a debt-paying party. In 1860, when the Republicans carried the state for the first time, the state debt was $10,286,855—a legacy of years of Democratic rule. With the inauguration of Republican rule the reduction of the state debt began, and by 1870 it was reduced to $3,937,000. The impulse given during that decade to the policy of debt reduction has been felt ever since, but there is no reason to believe that it would have been inaugurated by the democratic party.—Indianapolis Journal.

A Popular Measure.

One of the laws passed by a Republican legislature and which was overlooked for eulogy by the state convention platform was the mortgage exemption law just declared constitutional by the Supreme Court. The law saves the taxpayer money, in the right way, and is very popular thereby.—Green-castle Banner-Times.

THE PRIZE SALE.

Jackson & Tinder Had a Big Crowd Last Night.

The prize sale at Jackson & Tinder's jewelry store last night drew a big crowd, and such a jolly, jostling crowd as it was. Everyone was in the best of humor and enjoyed the opening of the packages immensely. From seven to eight o'clock the buying was rapid and nearly half of the three hundred packages were sold. If anyone drew either of the largest prizes, the watch or the ring, they have not made known the fact, and the chance for securing one or both of these prizes is larger tonight since there are fewer packages from which to select. A great many nice articles were among those picked out last night. One man secured a fountain pen and an alarm clock. Another silver knives and forks, and butter knives, and numerous other articles. Some amusing mistakes occurred. Brooch pins were drawn by young men and cuff buttons by the young women. But they will be ready to make presents to their sweethearts. The attractive feature of the sale is that no article is worth less than the price of a choice, fifty cents. The sale will continue tonight and it is quite likely that the entire pile will be closed out, including both the big prizes.

To Repair Bridge.

The county commissioners went to Helt's mill yesterday to confer with the commissioners of Jackson and Jennings counties, about the needed repairs of the joint bridge over Big Sandcreek. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

POOR ECONOMY.

Saving Time and Losing Health.

The man who ate his breakfast over night to save time in the morning was not a whit more foolish than is the man who eats his lunch at his desk while he works "to save time," or because he is in a hurry. Nature won't be hurried. If you try to hurry her or overdrive her she balks. Eat regularly and reasonably, and she provides the juices necessary for digestion. Try to work and eat at the same time and she refuses to provide the needed juices for digestion, without which the food which should sustain life becomes an injury to the health it should promote.

Even the people who take time to go to lunch carry their business with them, as a rule, and are satisfied to shovel into the stomach in ten minutes food which requires two or three hours for digestion.

The consequence is indigestion, stomach "trouble," loss of vital force and general debility, and the American people become a nation of "dyspeptics."

A NATIONAL PERIL.

If it be true (and it is) that no man is stronger than his stomach, dyspepsia, the national disease, is a national danger. Unchecked and uncured it menaces the strength of a nation which is made up of units, a large percentage of whom are dyspeptics and therefore weak.

Fortunately the dyspeptic does not need to remain a dyspeptic. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other forms of stomach trouble perfectly and permanently. It enables the building up of the body in the only way possible, by the assimilation of nutrition derived from perfectly digested food.

"I was taken sick two years ago," writes Rev. W. H. Patterson, of White Cloud, Ala., "with what the doctors thought was gastric trouble, indigestion or nervous dyspepsia, also consumption and inactive liver. I was in a dreadful condition. Tried several different doctors, with but little result. Finally, about a year ago, I wrote you, stating my condition. You replied, diagnosing my case, and recommending Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' I bought two bottles and it seemed to do very little good, if any, but I got two more of each, as at first, and after taking could see but little improvement, so I stopped until about Christmas time. I had gotten so feeble that I was almost past traveling about; I had gotten down to one hundred and fourteen pounds. I wrote again and you advised me to still continue; and so I went and bought six bottles and got the 'Pellets' and began anew, following directions. When I had taken about five bottles I felt very much better and was greatly improved, and weighed one hundred and thirty-eight pounds. I will say that Dr. Pierce's medicines are a God-send to poor suffering humanity, and I advise any and all chronic sufferers to give them a fair trial and they will be satisfied."

of stomach "trouble" is to begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine cures forty-nine out of fifty people who try it faithfully and fairly. There is only one chance in fifty that it won't completely cure you. There is no chance in the world that it will not benefit you. "Golden Medical Discovery" always helps, and almost always cures. But it needs perseverance to overcome conditions which have taken years to produce. The case of Rev. W. H. Patterson given above is a good illustration of the need of persistence. The first bottle or two didn't help him, the medicine even made him feel worse and he stopped its use just at the critical time. Despair drove him back to it, and he bought half a dozen bottles of the "Discovery"—enough for a fair trial—and he was cured. It's a wise thing to buy enough medicine at the start to insure its persistent use. But where there is one person who uses two or three bottles of "Golden Medical Discovery" without appreciable benefit there are a hundred who write, "I felt better after the first few doses of the medicine and continued to improve until I was completely cured."

"I had been sick for two years with indigestion and nervous debility, and had taken medicine from my family doctor for a long time without much benefit," writes Mrs. W. H. Peebles, of Lucknow, S. Car. "Was induced by my husband to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter. You advised me to take 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did, and, to my great surprise, after taking six bottles I was cured. My husband has not paid one cent in doctors bills for me since. I took the medicine nearly two years ago."

is a very common and natural result of dyspepsia of stomach "trouble." When the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are diseased, the food eaten is not assimilated, as a result the body loses nutrition and this loss of nutrition is marked in the wasting of flesh and loss of strength.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, so that the strength is restored by the only means known to nature—by the nutrition derived from food. The whole body feels and shows the change. The lost flesh is regained, the lost strength recovered, and there is new vitality and vigor.

Sick men or women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free, and so obtain the opinion of a specialist of long experience and great success in the treatment and cure of disease. This offer of free consultation by letter is especially urged upon the attention of those suffering from chronic forms of disease, and who have failed to find a cure by the use of other means. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't be deceived into trading a substance for a shadow. Any substitute offered "as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery" is a shadow of that medicine. There are cures behind every claim made for the "Discovery," which is not just as good "medicine can show.

HOW THE CHINESE GET RAIN

Peculiar Practices in Vogue in the Celestial Kingdom.

It is one of the peculiarities of the Chinese that, while they have developed elaborate philosophies, none of them has led to any confidence in the uniformity of nature. Neither the people nor their rulers have any fixed opinion as to the causes of rainfall. The plan in some provinces when the need of rain is felt is to borrow a god from a neighboring district and petition him for the desired rain. If his answer is satisfactory, he is returned to his home with every mark of honor; otherwise he may be put out in the sun as a hint to wake up and do his duty. A bunch of willow is usually thrust into his hand, as willow is sensitive to moisture.

Another plan in extensive use is the building of special temples in which are wells containing several iron tablets. When there is a scarcity of rain, a messenger starts out with a tablet marked with the date of the journey and the name of the district making the petition. Arriving at another city, he pays a sum of money and is allowed to draw a new tablet from the well, throwing in his own by way of exchange. On the return journey he is supposed to eat only bran and travel at top speed day and night. Some times he passes through districts as greatly in need of rain as his own. Then the people in these places waylay him and, temporarily borrowing his tablet, get the rain intended for another place.

Prayers are usually made in the fifth and sixth months when the rainfall is always due, and a limit of ten days is set for their effective operation. Under such conditions rain usually falls during the prescribed time. When the prayers are in progress, the umbrella, among other objects, comes under the ban. In some provinces foreigners have been mobbed for carrying this harmless article at that time.

DEATH BY ARSENIC.

The Way This Poison Acts Upon the Human System.

When a single dose of arsenic in sufficient quantity to be felt has been taken, colicky pains, bowel disorder and perhaps nausea result. In the course of an hour after a poisonous dose has been taken an intense burning pain is felt in the esophagus and stomach. This spreads to the entire anterior portion of the lower part of the trunk. A sense of constriction at the throat and an acrid, metallic taste accompany the pain. Then vomiting and relaxation of the bowels begin. As the case progresses the symptoms increase in intensity. Then comes a thirst that water will not allay, although it apparently increases the stomach disturbance. The victim groans and writhes.

Now he implores the doctor to save him. Then he begs to be killed and put out of pain. The extremities become icy. The pulse is small, feeble and frequent, and the breathing is labored, embarrassed and painful because of abdominal tenderness. The surface of the body becomes dark and of that bluish color that medical men call cyanosed. Violent cramps add their torture, exhaustion becomes collapse, convulsions or coma ensues, and death ends the agony. This torture lasts sometimes from five to twenty hours.

In some cases these symptoms occur, but in a modified form, and the doctor will apparently get the better of the disease. The remission will be but for a day or two. Then the abdomen will swell, and icy coldness will pervade the frame. Shivering will become pronounced trembling, then cramps, convulsions and death.

Read It in His Newspaper.

George Scuba, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by C. W. Milhouse.

Twain and the Livermen.

Mark Twain once told to a party of friends the following story on himself: On one occasion when he started on a trip down the Mississippi river on a flatboat he was advised never to answer the questions asked by rivermen on other boats and never to bandy words with them, as he would be sure always to come out second best. He followed the advice religiously for a time, but one day he thought he saw a chance to get the better of a riverman who called out: "Hey, thar, what yer loaded with?" "Jackass. Don't you want to come aboard?" yelled back Twain. "That's what I reckoned, seein' as how they let their biggest donkey hev their run of the deck!" came back Twain made a dive below as all the rivermen in the neighborhood set up a derisive laugh at his expense.

How to Avoid Trouble.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by C. W. Milhouse.

Mrs. Densford, of Florida, and Mrs. Hal Love, of Seymour, were visiting Mrs. R. D. Hays recently.

Dr. F. F. Whitted and wife and daughter, Gertrude May, of Bloomington, are visiting friends here.

Prof. T. H. Dunn, superintendent of public schools at Quincy, Illinois, while on his way home to Alton, Indiana, stopped over Sunday with his brother, Wm. R. Dunn.

Edward Bennett's horse which was injured at Seymour last week had to be killed. He took the most humane way by administering chloroform.

Mrs. Fred Mellicamp is seriously ill.

Mrs. Robbins, wife of Rev. Robbins, received a message that her mother, Mrs. Wilson, of Brownsburg, was dangerously sick, and she started for her bedside Thursday morning.

J. H. Hodapp is shipping baled hay to Bedford.

D. H. Richards, a junior in Central medical college, Indianapolis, won first place on the final examination and was appointed assistant at the city hospital. His work there begins the first of November and lasts till the first of next May. He also won first honors in a contest for the best book published on the diseases of the nose and throat. He belongs to a class of twenty with whom he competed.

CORTLAND COMMENCEMENT.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant, of Miry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. Pellen's drug store. Peter's drug store.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name of biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. Atrocity liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleaning the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never grip. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried."
